

Home Inspection Training Courses

There's more to a home inspection than just looking around a house. It is a profession that combines construction knowledge with communication skills and business savvy. Our online home inspection training course, developed in conjunction with American Home Inspectors Training Institute, offers you the best home inspection training program in North America. The eight technical study modules - together with audio and visual tutorials, photos of numerous inspection scenarios, and practice exercises and quizzes - provide you with a step-by-step process for executing a complete, thorough, professional home inspection and producing a professional home inspection report. The course also includes valuable information on how to successfully start up, market, and build your home inspection business so that you are earning income as quickly as possible.
